Piedmont Western Safety Council

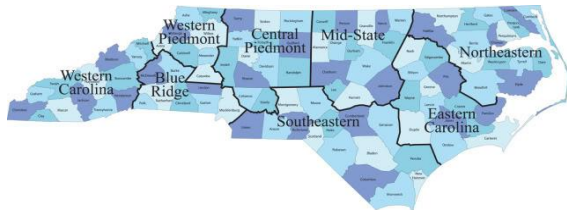

The Western Piedmont Safety Council was organized in 1941 and is sponsored by the North Carolina Safety Conference, Inc.. It has developed an ongoing program to help in the reduction in the loss of North Carolina's vital human and economic resources.

Organized in 1941, the Western Piedmont Safety Council has continuously worked to reduce economic losses and eliminate human injury in the workplace. The Council realizes that North Carolina's most important resource is its people.

Objective

The chief objective of the Western Piedmont Safety Council is to promote industrial, public, and home safety through the Council's activities and programs. The Council is operated as an independent, non-profit, non-political organization.

Council Area

The Western Piedmont Safety Council is composed of members from Alexander, Alleghany, Ashe, Avery, Caldwell, Catawba, Watauga, and Wilkes counties. Members come from all types of industries from manufacturing, construction, and retail to education. Members are often supervisors, human resources managers as well as environmental health and safety managers.

Programs

Programs of the Western Piedmont Safety Council (WPSC) are held in March, May, August and November. The meetings are held in different areas of the eight counties of the council. For these programs, we secure outstanding speakers in the field of safety. You will receive specific information covering each program. The council conducts an all-day workshop which includes relevant safety and health topics, motivational speakers and lunch.

Life Saving Awards

The Council sponsors an award for an individual who has performed a life saving act. The award recognizes persons who have performed with skill and/or courage to conserve life and limb.

Applications can be requested from officers or board members of the Council.

Workshops

The Council sponsors a fall workshop to address safety issues faced by those in the region. Please let us know if you have particular topics of interest.

Membership

Membership in the Council offers the opportunity to meet and exchange ideas and information with other members who share your concern for accident prevention on and off the job.

If you are already a member

A current list of officers and members of the Board of Directors is listed on the Newsletter of the Council. Please refer to it if you need to contact a member of the Board. Additional pamphlets may be obtained by contacting the NC Safety Conference, Inc. or a Board member.
